MILIPOL PARIS 2021 INAUGURATED BY FRENCH MIN OF INTERIOR GERAUD DARMANIN

THE 22ND EDITION OCT 19TH

Paris, Washington DC, 21.10.2021, 23:49 Time

USPA NEWS - French Minister of Interior, Gerald DARMANIN, inaugurated on October 19, Milipol, the world's leading security and safety event, organized under the patronage of the Ministry of the Interior. With 1,000 exhibitors, 30,000 French and international visitors and 150 official delegations expected, this 22nd edition is a unique opportunity to discover the latest technological innovations in homeland security, share the market vision and all the knowledge of international experts who will speak in French and English, in different formats: keynotes, conferences, case studies or round tables. In partnership with the Institut des Hautes Etudes du Ministère de l'Intérieur (IHEMI), Milipol Paris is staging a new series of talks focusing on international issues for homeland security. Yann Jounot, Préfet, Chairman & CEO of Civipol and President of the Milipol trade fairs, will introduce the opening talk on the main theme: Peacetime, Times of crisis, Exchanges at European level.

A MARKET IN FULL RECOVERY-----

The health crisis has caused an unprecedented drop in security spending worldwide since the Second World War. However, this decline is less pronounced than that of the general economy, and there are significant variations between regions of the world. The recovery is already evident in 2021 for the global market of internal state security, which represents nearly €150 billion, or about a quarter of total security spending.

SOME KEY FIGURES (source: En Toute Sécurité 2021 study) -----

- The global security market (electronic and physical security, cybersecurity, homeland security, human surveillance, fire prevention, cash transportation, etc.) fell by 3% in 2020 to €605 billion.
- The global security market looks set to grow by 8% in 2021 and 6% in 2022.
- North America is positioned as the leading region for homeland security and defense spending, with 36% of the global total in 2020, ahead of Asia/Middle East (32% share) and the European market (22%).
- A 3.1% decline in the total French security market in 2020 to €29.7 billion, and a return to growth in 2021: +5.2%.
- An 8.6% decline in the French homeland security market in 2020 to €3.6 billion with a return to growth in 2021: +5%.
- The French cybersecurity market held up well in 2020: +4.8% at €4.7 billion with growth forecast at 9.7% in 2021.
- The French airport security market (human surveillance only) collapsed in 2020: down 39.7% to €324 million with estimated growth of 24.3% in 2021.
- Slower growth in the French video surveillance market in 2020: +1.5% at €1.5 billion, with 3.9% growth forecast in 2021.
- Growth in the French surveillance drone market was cut in half in 2020: +5.8% at €93 million, with a forecast of +7.8% in 2021.
